ATLAS SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Caesar

single: 8 | double: 11

Vodka and real Clamato make up this classic with Montreal Steak spice rim, shredded basil, fresh grated horse radish, garnish with smoked salmon stick from our Jospser oven.

Canada: The Caesar was invented in Calgary, Alberta in 1969 by restaurateur Walter Chell to celebrate the opening of a new restaurant in the city.

Bourbon & Black Tea

11

Earl grey tea infused Bulliet Bourbon, lemon juice, orange water syrup, egg white, cream.

USA: There is nothing more American than Bourbon and the Boston Tea Party. The key ingredient in this cocktail is the tea-infused Bourbon well completed by the orange essence and lush mouth feel.

Xtabentun (Iced Mayan Coffee)

Gold Tequila, Absinthe, Kahlua, egg white, agave syrup, chilled French pressed smoked coffee from the Jospser oven, garnished with 1oz of chilled cream and shaved bitter chocolate.

Mexico: Xtabentún is a ceremonial liquor produced by the Maya. The word xtabentún means "vines growing on stone" in the Mayan language. It refers to a species of morning glory whose seeds contain ergine and have hallucinogenic properties.

Frozen Hound

Vodka, Cointreau, agave syrup, garnished with pink grapefruit granita.

England: The earliest known mention of a cocktail of this description is in bartender and author Harry Craddock's Savoy Cocktail Book of 1930. This is our take on the classic.

Kodawari

Sake, white grape juice, lemon juice, plum wine, fried basil leaf, frozen grapes

Japan: Reflect what Japanese call kodawari, which translates roughly to a striving for unreachable perfection achieved through relentless practice, repetition, and extreme attention to detail. It's kodawari that makes Japanese cocktail preparation unique

Hussar 11
Apricot Brandy, cognac, scotch, fresh blood orange juice, orange peel

Austria: Austrian cavalry was one of the most famous troops in the world. The best of these horseman were selected to be Hussar. The only cavalry unit in history to turn back Alexander the great during his conquest. This is our inspiration

Imperial Pear 12
Sake, vodka, rose water syrup, ginger syrup, lime juice, 3 mint leaves, fresh pear juice, soda

China: The pear has its origin and domestication in China. It is the fifth most widely produced fruit in the world, being produced mainly in China, Europe, and the United States. Pear belongs to rosaceous family.

Agua de Valencia 10
Grand Marnier, Cointreau, Gin, orange wedges, orange water syrup, lime juice, orange juice.

Spain: Agua de Valencia is a drink inspired by Constante Gil from the bar Café Madrid de Valencia in the city of Valencia, Spain, served the Agua de Valencia for the first time in 1959. Meaning the Water of Valencia, famous for oranges.

Aquavit 43 11
Orange water syrup, Aquavit, vodka, sparkling wine, mint

Sweden: The word aquavit is derived from Latin aqua vitae, "water of life." Whisky is derived from uisge beatha, the Goidelic equivalent of this phrase. Likewise, clear fruit brandy is called "eau de vie" (French for "water of life"). Aquavit is an important part of Scandinavian drinking culture.

Miwadi 11
Orange water syrup, Aquavit, vodka, sparkling wine, blackberries.

Ireland: During the war, the drink was sold in chemists as it was a fruit cordial and was often given to people when they were sick. Orange, blackcurrant, lemon, lime, and tropical, which are all produced in Dublin. A popular hangover cure, customers will often ask for a pint of Miwadi in bars.
